Respectfully submitted, S. M. KEMERLIN, Chairman.
Adopted.

Report of Committee on Obituary Notices.

Your Committee ask leave to report as follows:

Though God has been very merciful towards us, and the lives of his people have been precious in his sight, and the general health of the Association has been good, yet it has pleased our Heavenly Father to take to himself several of our most useful members, among whom we would especially mention Rev. W. G. Mack. Bro. Mack was born March 3rd, 1809, died August 20th, 1881. He began life in humble circumstances, and by diligence and economy accumulated a very pretty property about him, and at the same time raised a large, intelligent and Christian family. Bro. Mack's home was ever open for the entertainment of strangers, but above every other noble trait of character towered his love of Jesus and his cause. He was an affectionate and devoted father and husband, cherishing his family as gifts from God. He was an earnest and successful preacher of the Word, and enjoyed the full confidence of his brethren. For two years he was the acceptable Moderator of this Association. Although his words of counsel and comfort shall never again be heard in our churches, his deeds will be forever enshrined in the memories of those who knew and loved him.

We are also called upon to lament the death of Rev. W. Ransom Parler. He died at his home in Orangeburg County, S. C., August 13th, 1881. He joined the church in 1864, and was ever afterward a pure and noble Christian gentleman. He had been well educated, and was a faithful Gospel preacher, declaring the whole counsel of God. At the time of his removal from our midst Bro. Parler was in his prime, and was laboring with marked success as the pastor of Four Holes Church. He was also a useful and valued member of our Association, but he now sits in Heaven with the church and assembly of first born ones, and while we deeply mourn the loss of these dear brethren, we rejoice that we can sing:

Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep,
From which none ever wake to weep,
A calm and undisturbed repose,
Unbroken by the last of foes.

Respectfully submitted, T. M. GALPHIN, Chairman.

Adopted by rising vote.

On motion, the Association adjourned to hear Rev. B. C. Lamplsey preach at the grand.

The Association was called to order by the Moderator and proceeded to business.

The report of the Executive Committee was read and adopted, and the Treasurer instructed to pay the missionary, Rev. W. F. Chaplin, forty dollars, the amount promised by the Executive Board.

Report of Executive Committee.

ORANGEBURG C. H., March 19, 1881.
The Executive Committee of the Orangeburg Association met according to request. There being but four of the Board present, we adjourned to meet on Saturday before third Sunday in April next. Met pursuant to adjournment, and proceeded to business. On motion, Rev. W. F. Chaplin and Rev. W. R. Parler were appointed to preach two months in the bounds of the Association, to commence in July; and that we pay them forty dollars each for their services. Before commencing the work, Bro. Parler died.

Respectfully submitted,
T. W. REID, Pres. Ex. Board.
